

Calving and Newborn Management

Thursday, August 20, 2015 10 am—3 pm
(registration 9:30-10am)

Cost: $40 - Pre-register by August 14

University of Florida—Alto Straughn Extension Center
2142 Shealy Drive, Gainesville, FL

Both an English and Spanish session will run simultaneously, led by:

Dr. Gustavo Schuenemann
Ohio State University Veterinary School
And
Dr. Klibs Galvao
UF College of Veterinary Medicine

They will be discussing:

- Parturition and Calving Management Practices in Dairy Herds

Then hands-on demonstrating:

- Strategies for Difficult Births
- Newborn Care and Colostrum Management

After sending 2 employees last year, Johan Heijkoop stated, "This workshop was one of the very best. I'd send as many guys as I possibly could every year to refresh their memories and learn more."

Make Checks Payable To: Suwannee County Extension - $40/person

Please mail form and payment by August 14 to:

Dr. Mary Sowerby

1302 11th Street SW, Live Oak, FL 32064

For more information, contact Mary Sowerby at (386) 362-2771

Calving and Newborn Management

(For multiple participants from the same farm, please simply send additional names and whether they prefer English or Spanish)

Name: _____ Dairy Farm: _____

Language Preference: English _____ Spanish _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

An Equal Opportunity Institution